

SCHOOL LAW GUIDELINES

- I will be observant during the school day to help protect my students and colleagues from injury.
- I will not violate copyright law.
- I will dress and groom myself as a professional should.
- All students will receive their constitutional due process rights.
- My classroom rules will be fair, reasonable, and non-discriminatory.
- I will maintain the ethical and honorable values consistent with professional behavior.
- I will always tell the truth.
- I will set an example of the highest level for other teachers.
- I will not violate school district policy in the use of school computers and technology.
- I will not improperly fraternize with my students.
- I will make every effort to adhere to a special education student's IEP.
- I will not overstep the boundaries of academic freedom.
- I will report suspected cases of child abuse.
- I will arrive at school on time.
- I will avoid gossip.

Quote: "A Republic is a government of laws, not men." John Adams

 Originally titled: "2010 New Year School Law Resolutions" from The Moore School Law Report, dated 1-20-2010, by Dr. Richard Moore, used by permission.*